

List of POL courses listed on e-Curriculum (as of Aug 2018)

Legend: American Politics course; Political Theory course; Comparative Politics course; International Relations course; Other (policy, inter-disciplinary, cross-departmental, etc. courses)

Introductory courses and Freshmen Seminars

Course Code	Title	Brief description	Notes
POL 1001	Power & Politics: Understanding the POL World	Introduces students to approaches used to study politics; students become familiar with sub-fields in Political Science & philosophical assumptions underlying political inquiry.	POL and INTA required Core methods offering
POL 1010	Intro to American Politics	Introduces students to the American political system: public opinion, voting, interest groups, social parties, public policy, etc.	POL and INTA required (INTA 3 of 4 intros)
POL 1013	Freshmen Seminar: Democratic Citizenship	Introduces UC students to the topics of political activism and civic engagement.	Freshmen seminar/ fulfills gen. ed. Requirement (SS and SE).
POL 1021	Freshmen Seminar: Post-Truth and Fake News	This freshmen seminar explores issues related to the future of the news media and of society from the perspectives of communication, political science, and journalism.	Freshmen seminar/ fulfills gen. ed. requirement. Cross-listed JOUR 1060; COMM 1060
POL 1027	Freshmen Seminar: Social Justice	This freshmen seminar explores issues related to the future of the news media and of society from the perspectives of communication, political science, and journalism.	Freshmen seminar/ fulfills gen. ed. Requirement.
POL 1040	Intro to Political Theory	Traces the development of political theory from the classical era to the modern theory	POL and INTA required (INTA 3 of 4 intros)
POL 1060	Intro to Comparative Politics	Introduces fundamentals of comparative government institutions and political processes.	POL; INTA students should plan to complete it.
POL 1080	Intro to Int'l Relations	Builds a sophisticated understanding of contemporary international politics thru focus on war, peace, law and institutions	POL; INTA students should plan to complete it.
POL 1081	Freshmen Seminar: Globalization: Challenges & Opps	Introduces first year students to various debates about globalization; the course considers the arguments in favor and against globalization.	Freshmen seminar/ fulfills gen. ed. requirement SS for INTA.
POL 1089	Freshmen Seminar Human Rights and Security: Balance in Free Society	This freshmen seminar explores issues in the nexus of human rights, security and individual freedoms from the perspectives of history and political science.	Freshmen seminar/ fulfills gen. ed. requirement. Cross-listed HIST 1089
POL 1090	Law, Politics and Society	Introduces students to the Legal Studies field; explores the role of law and the legal system in politics and society.	LSC Certificate course Intro for INTA students

Upper-level (2000-4000 level) courses

Course Code	Title	Brief description	Notes
2010	Public Opinion and American Politics	Teaches origins of modern public opinion polling and how it has evolved over time	POL majors; Public Opinion certificate, NO INTA majors
2011	Elections in America	Analyses American electoral system, political campaigns, and voting behavior.	POL majors only
2012	Political Parties in America	Examines the roles of political parties in the American political system including selection of candidates, financing of campaigns, and mobilization of voters.	POL majors only
2013	Democratic Citizenship	Surveys theories and premises of citizenship, as well as factors that challenge these concepts.	POL majors only
2014	Sports and Politics	Analyzes the political and social impact of sport, including professional sports, intercollegiate athletics, and the	POL majors only

		Olympics.
2015	Women and Politics	Introduce the feminist approach to politics and political institutions; examines the status of women in the US from the colonial period to the present.	POL majors only; cross-listed WGS 2015
2016	State and Local Government	Focuses on institutional structure of U.S. states and local governments; explores the history and development of state and local governments in the U.S. federal system.	POL majors only
2017	Government & Politics of Ohio	Traces the history and traditions that shaped and formed the major political institutions of the State of Ohio and its party system.	POL majors only
2018	Interest Group Politics and Lobbying	Discusses how interests groups organize themselves, mobilize supporters, and how they seek to influence policies in all branches and levels of government.	POL majors only
2019	The American Presidency	Applies various concepts and methodologies to examine the institution of the American Presidency.	POL majors only
2020	The American Congress	Introduces students to the constitutional structure of the US Congress and to the functions that the legislative body performs in the U.S. political system.	POL majors only
2021	American Courts + Judicial Process	Examines the structure and functions of the state and federal judicial systems, civil and criminal procedure, and the legal profession.	POL majors only; SSTD certificate
2022	The Politics of Law and Religion in the U.S.	Explores the relationship between politics, law, and religion in the United States from the Founding period to the present.	POL majors only; cross-listed with religious studies
2023	Media and Politics in America	Examines the theoretical and actual role of media in the United States, with a particular focus on media content as an influence on public opinion and behavior.	POL majors only; joined with JOUR 3035
2024	Constitutional Conversations	This course focuses on the U.S. Constitution and the contemporary conversations related to various constitutional topics.	POL majors only; Legal Studies and Law and Society Course.
2026	Introduction to Public Administration	Introduces various approaches to public administration and its role within a democratic society, utilizing various political science concepts and methodologies.	POL & INTA majors, SSTD certificate
2027	Gov't, Politics and Justice	Analyzes the impact of marginalization, institutional racism, and other oppressive political and government structures which constrain the social and political mobility in the US.	POL majors
2031	Environmental Policy	Analyzes the behavior and activities of national and global entities in the processes of making and implementing environmental policy.	POL & INTA majors; SSTD certificate; cross-listed EVST 2031
2035	Cybersecurity: Strategy and Policy	Examines U.S. and international efforts to develop strategies, policies, and organizations needed to secure the digital infrastructure.	POL & INTA majors; SSTD and Cybersecurity certificates
2036	Cyber Security and Social Responsibility	Surveys cyber environment, assesses cybersecurity practices in a responsible decision-making framework, and applies student creativity and insight to making socially responsible recommendations for policy situations.	POL & INTA majors; Cybersecurity certificates
2037	Conflict in Cyberspace	The course will focus on control in cyberspace, various actors in this domain, cyber threats and vulnerabilities and various forms of cyberconflict.	POL & INTA majors; Cybersecurity & Security studies certificates
2038	Law and Politics in Cyberspace	This course will survey key legal and political issues related to cyber security that include the role of governments, the private sector, the IOs and other players.	POL & INTA majors; Cybersecurity & Security studies certificates
2040	Development of Political Thought	Examines various political theories and develops ability to critically analyze these theories.	POL & INTA majors
2045	American Political Thought	Focus on various idealist and pragmatic philosophy and political thought that distinguish American Political Thought.	POL & INTA majors
2055	Win! How to Use Politics to Advance Agenda	Introduces students to various strategies to achieve political outcomes that are advantageous to themselves and/or their organizations.	POL majors only; cross-listed PLAN 2055
2063	Politics of China	Surveys modern and contemporary Chinese politics with	POL&INTA majors; AIST

		focus on local and national policy-making and the Chinese party-state.
2064	Politics of South Asia	Analyzes the many forms of government and politics in South Asia, which includes India (emphasis), Pakistan, Bangladesh, Afghanistan, Sri Lanka, Nepal and Burma.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD certificate; AIST
2065	Politics of Latin America	Analyzes the many forms of government and politics in Latin America and the major issues facing the region today.	POL&INTA majors
2066	Indian Politics and Society	Introduces India's politics and its social and cultural mosaic; focuses on political institutions and processes depicting the Indian experience.	POL&INTA majors; AIST
2069	Politics of Developing Countries	Examines developing countries in light of modernization and globalization thru the themes of polity, economy and identity.	POL&INTA majors
2071	Politics of the Middle East	Analyzes the diverse forms of government and politics in the Middle East; focuses on regional conflicts, human rights and minority issues.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD certificate; Middle Eastern Studies
2072	Iran: Domestic Politics and Foreign Relations	Introduces students to the domestic politics and foreign policy of Iran with focus on its social and political institutions, and foreign relations.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD certificate; Middle Eastern Studies
2074	Politics of Russia	Surveys the political system of Russia with focus on its culture, social, and economic features, domestic institutions, political parties, and foreign relations.	POL&INTA majors; cross-listed EUST 2074
2076	PoliSciFi: PoliSci thru Fiction and Film	Uses film and fiction to enable students to experience different worldviews; applies techniques for discourse and visual analysis.	POL&INTA majors
2077	Politics of Europe	Surveys governments in Europe, including their history, institutions, parties, classes and groups, and cultural patterns.	POL&INTA majors; cross-listed EUST 2077
2078	Japan: Society, Gov't and Economy	Uses interdisciplinary methods to introduce students to Japan's society, politics, government, and economy.	POL&INTA majors; AIST 2078
2080	America and the World	Examines the current U.S. role in world politics including the conduct of war, trade, and diplomacy; focuses on selected issues and policies.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD certificate
2081	Globalization and Politics	Introduces students to scholarly and policy debates about globalization; examines analytical and normative perspectives and surveys contemporary cases.	POL&INTA majors
2082	US Foreign Policy: Institutions, Process, and Policy	Introduces core actors, institutions and processes of US foreign policy and the leading models that explain specific US policies.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD certificate
2083	US National Security: Institutions, Process, and Policy	Introduces core actors, institutions and processes of US national security; engages in assessing contemporary national security policy choices.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD certificate
2084	US Political Intel/ Counter-intelligence	Examines U.S. intelligence community and its place in U.S. foreign policy; analyzes critically 21 century intelligence issues.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD certificate
2085	Terrorism and Insurgency	Examines historical and contemporary aspects of terrorism and insurgency warfare; focuses on contemporary cases.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD certificate
2086	Economic Globalization	Introduces the principles and issues associated with global flows of goods, money and resources; evaluates various effects of globalization.	POL&INTA majors
2087	Cooperation in Int'l Relations	Introduces key concepts & theories of int'l cooperation and examines instances of such cooperation through case studies and faculty-led study abroad.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD certificate; study abroad
2088	Int'l Law and Organization	Surveys int'l law, intergovt'l and non-govt'l organizations; addresses global governance, the U.N. system, security, trade and development.	POL&INTA majors; IHR, SSTD certificates
2089	Int'l Human Rights	Introduces the history, theory and culture of human rights; examines political, ethical, and legal dilemmas in connection with human rights.	POL&INTA majors; IHR, SSTD certificates
2090	America and Asia	Examines U.S. foreign policy and regional politics in Asia;	POL&INTA majors; AIST

		covers political and economic engagement between America and Asia.	2090
2091	War and Security	Examines means, methods, and motives for violence in IR; focuses on the causes of war, the effects of armed forces; and their implications for contemporary security.	POL and INTA majors Required course for SSTD certificate
2092	European Security: Actors, Processes, & Pol	Examines issues and problems of European security; surveys multiplicity of institutions and actors dealing with security concerns in Europe.	EUST 2092 POL and INTA majors Required course for SSTD certificate
2093	Rising China in World Politics	Examines China's rise to international prominence and its implications for regional and global affairs; focuses on issues of energy, environment and security.	POL&INTA majors; AIST
2096	Global Gender Politics	Introduces how dominant approaches to global governance, global security, and global political economy are gendered and with what consequences.	POL&INTA majors; WIGS majors/ students; WGS2096
2097	International Institutions	Introduces students to concepts and theories of int'l institutions through on campus discussions and a study abroad trip to Brussels and The Hague.	POL&INTA majors; SSTD and IHR certificates; study abroad
3000	Political Inquiry: Approaches & Methods	Examines the diverse approaches to studying politics; focuses on the foundational principles of research design and data analysis in political science.	Required POL&INTA course Core methods offering
3001C	Quant Research & Data Analysis	This course examines the foundational principles of research design, collection and analysis of quantitative data in social science.	Required Gen Ed Course (QR) for POL&INTA majors, joined with JOUR 3000C
3009	Water Justice	Studies economic, cultural, social, environmental, and political importance of water; assesses approaches to water resources and different models of governance.	POL&INTA majors; cross-listed SOC 3009
3013	Political Psychology	Examines the history and evolution of the discipline of political psychology and its impact on public opinion, political ideology, and voting behavior.	POL majors only; cross-listed PHYC 3013
3015	Religion & Politics	Examines trends in religious identities, attitudes and political behavior, and issues and controversies about the role of religion in elections and politics.	POL majors only
3016	Polls, Elections, and American Politics	Examines public opinion and election polls in American politics, with emphasis on the measurement and interpretation of public opinion and election polls.	POL majors only
3021	Constitutional Law: Federal System	Introduces constitutionalism, the allocation of judicial, legislative, and executive powers, and the division of authority between nat., state and federal governments.	POL majors only; SSTD certificate
3022	Constitutional Law: Civil Rights + Liberties	Covers issues of criminal due process, life and death; discrimination and fundamental first amendment liberties.	POL majors only; SSTD and IHR certificates
3031	Sustainable Development	Explores the debates about sustainable development and current strategies for its implementation at the state, national, and international levels.	POL&INTA majors; coirss-listed EVST 3031
3032	Global Environmental Law & Policy	Introduces fundamental legal and policy issues in environmental law at domestic and international levels.	POL&INTA majors; cross-listed EVST 5101
3033	Global Biodiversity: Law and Policy	Examines multiple areas of law dealing with constitutional, administrative and international aspects of biodiversity and natural resource protection.	POL&INTA majors; cross-listed EVST 5101
3034	Emergency Management Policy & Administration	Surveys federal, state, and local efforts to manage man-made and natural disasters; examines policies to ensure homeland security.	POL majors only; SSTD certificate
3037	Women and Global Issues	Examines effects of global issues such as poverty, war, and the environment on women and their responses in various contexts.	POL and INTA majors; IHR certificate; cross-listed WGS 3037
3041	Marx and the Marxist Tradition	Examines key ideas of Karl Marx's approach to politics, economics, and society.	POL and INTA majors; joined offering with PHIL
3042	Black Politics	Takes a historical look at black political thought and action (i.e. Garvey Movement, Civil Rights Movement, Black	POL majors only; cross-listed AFST 3086 Power).

3043	Citizenship and Terrorism	Compares and contrasts citizenship and terrorism; distinguishes between individual and socialized obligations and discusses their ethical and moral aspects.	POL&INTA majors, SSTD certificate
3044	Social & Political Philosophy	Studies the proper relationships between individuals, groups, and governments; focuses on natural, moral, or legal rights of individuals.	POL&INTA majors, cross-listed PHIL 3021
3045	African American Social and Political Thoughts	Takes a critical look at the development of social and political thought of African Americans, from Africa to present times.	POL majors only, cross-listed AFST 3025
3046	State Theory	Examines the historical development of the nation state and focuses on its characteristics and the challenges that it faces today.	POL&INTA majors, SSTD certificate
3012	Multicultural Politics and Women's Rights	Explores questions and practices of culture(s) and women's basic individual rights; consider different political solutions to women's dilemmas.	POL majors only; cross-listed WGS 3012
3060	Comparative Political Analysis	Studies various forms of rule throughout history and around the globe; examines different types of rule and their social, economic and ideological foundations.	POL and INTA majors
3061	Knowledge is Power	Studies politics and policies related to education in the U.S. and the world; re-examines key concepts such as power, democracy, citizenship, and equality.	POL and INTA majors
3062	Global Religion and politics	Examines issues of war and peace, political stability, democratic freedoms and oppressions through the lens of religion.	POL and INTA majors IHR certificate
3063	Politics on Film	Uses classic and contemporary American and international films to engage with various freedoms, leadership, propaganda, ideology and others.	POL and INTA majors
3069	South Asian Women: Politics, Culture, Identity	Examines how women have affected and been affected by politics in South Asia with primary focus on India, Pakistan, and Bangladesh.	POL and INTA majors Cross-listed with WGS; AIST
3076	Politics of the European Union	Surveys EU politics and explores its unique political system; discusses its inter-governmental and supra-national characteristics.	POL and INTA majors; cross-listed EUST 3076
3080	Approaches to International Politics	Discusses core actors and dynamics of international politics; examines competing theories used to explain contemporary policies.	POL and INTA majors Required SSTD course
3081	Politics of Global Economic Affairs	Examines various aspects of global economic activity, on welfare, distributional consequences, and security implications of the globalized world economy.	POL and INTA majors
3082	Alignment and Alliances in IR	Examines the theoretical literature on alignment and alliances; uses NATO to explain contemporary security policies.	POL and INTA majors SSTD certificate; EUST
3083	China and the World	Examines China's rise to international prominence and its implications for regional and global affairs.	POL and INTA majors AIST
3084	International Relations of East Asia	Provides an overview of IR in East Asia with emphasis on the post-Cold War period; focuses mostly on cases in Northeast Asia (China, Japan, the Koreas, Taiwan).	POL and INTA majors SSTD course; AIST 3084
3085	American Grand Strategy	Considers 20 th century American grand strategy toward Europe and discusses implications for future politics in Asia.	POL and INTA majors SSTD certificate
3086	Security and Conflict in Asia	Examines security and conflict in contemporary Asia; discusses social, political, and military aspects of security and conflict in the region.	POL and INTA majors SSTD certificate; AIST 3086
3087	Regional Politics in Asia	Examines social, economic, political, and security issues aspects of politics in Asia, and the role of regional entities and external powers.	POL and INTA majors SSTD certificate; AIST
3089	Ethics, Violence, and War	Examines ethical, moral, and legal dilemmas that arise in contexts of political violence and warfare.	POL and INTA majors SSTD, IHR certificates
3090	International Conflict	Examines causes, conduct and dynamics of international conflict, as well as challenges for conflict management and	POL and INTA majors SSTD certificate resolution in the 21st century.

3091	War and Security	Examines means, methods, and motives for violence in IR; focuses on the causes of war, the effects of armed forces; and their implications for contemporary security.	POL and INTA majors Required course for SSTD certificate
3093	Nuclear Proliferation and Arms Control	Examines the core issues in nuclear proliferation and arms control and their challenges in particular regions of the world.	POL and INTA majors SSTD certificate
4004	Feminist Methods & Methodologies	Examines feminist research practices, focusing on methodological and epistemological questions across various disciplines.	POL and INTA majors Cross-listed WGS 4004
4010	Individual Work: American Politic	Allows POL majors to pursue in depth a special interest in American Politics. Research plan, faculty approval and UG Director's authorization required.	Independent study; could fulfill other programmatic requirements per advisor's ok.
4028	Campaign Comm & Women in Elective Politics	Examines the campaign communication strategies used by and for women who have sought or who are seeking elective office in the United States.	POL majors only Cross-listed COMM4028
4040	Individual Work: Political Theory	Allows POL&INTA majors to pursue in depth a special interest in Political Theory. Research plan, faculty approval and UG Director's authorization required.	Independent study; could fulfill other programmatic requirements per advisor's ok.
4041	International Women's Human Rights	Focuses on women's rights struggles in various parts of the world; examines the use of these rights by different movements.	POL&INTA majors; IHR course; cross-listed WGS4040
4060	Individual Work: Comparative Politics	Allows POL&INTA majors to pursue in depth a special interest in Comparative Politics. Research plan, faculty approval and UG Director's authorization required.	Independent study; could fulfill other programmatic requirements per advisor's ok.
4063	Presidential Rhetoric	Examines the roles of public communication in American presidency and the impact of a president's rhetoric.	POL majors only; Cross-listed COMM4063
4080	Individual Work: International Relations	Allows POL&INTA majors to pursue in depth a special interest in International Relations. Research plan, faculty approval and UG Director's authorization required.	Independent study; could fulfill other programmatic requirements per advisor's ok.
4081	Simulation of Decision-Making in IOs	Students participating in the Model UN earn academic credit for participating in a simulation within an IO taking place abroad.	Practicum; fulfills experiential learning requirement. Faculty approval needed.
4090	Internship Practicum	Allows POL&INTA majors to pursue in depth a special interest thru Internships. Research plan, faculty approval and UG Director's authorization required.	Internship/ Practicum. Fulfills experiential learning. Faculty approval needed.
4091	Undergraduate Teaching Assistantship	Outstanding POL and INTA seniors can experience teaching in the classroom and assist faculty through peer-led discussions.	Part of the UGTA program. Fulfills experiential learning. Faculty approval needed.

Capstone courses (5100- and 7000-level) listed below:

5000	Senior Thesis I	Designed for POL&INTA majors to complete senior thesis under faculty supervision. Proposal, faculty and UG Director's approval required (Part 1)	5000 required. "In progress" grade assigned prior completion of the project.
5001	Senior Thesis II	Designed for POL&INTA majors to complete senior thesis under faculty supervision. Proposal, faculty and UG Director's approval required (Part 2)	Optional to fulfill the requirement.
5035C	Cyberattack Red Team Collaborative Seminar	Expands the understanding of cybersecurity and cyber-aggression (cybercrime, cyberespionage, or cyberwar).	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD & Cybersecurity (req'd); cross-listed IT5035C
5111 6011	Politics and the Public	Surveys the role of citizens in the political process with focus on participation in American national elections.	Capstone, POL majors only Capstone allowed for SSTD
5115	Polls, Elections, and	Studies public opinion and election polls in American	Capstone, POL majors only

6015	Public Opinion	politics, with emphasis on the measurement and the interpretation of public opinion and polls.	Capstone allowed for SSTD
5123 6023	U.S. Media Policy Research and Reporting	Students conduct academic research on important topics: the First Amendment, freedom of the press, media ethics, media credibility and audience perception, reporting routines, media convergence and business models.	Capstone, POL majors; joined offering with the JOUR grad program.
5131 6031	Global Health and Diplomacy	Discusses modern diplomacy, public health and disease. Focuses on maldistribution of resources, war, culture, infectious diseases, disasters and their impact on populations	Capstone, POL & INTA Majors; joined offering with College of Medicine (PH/ PH 8075)
5132 6032	Architecture and Politics/ Politics of Built Space	Examines the political forces that shape the built environment and architectural practices; investigates how architecture embodies operations of power.	Capstone, POL and INTA Majors; joined offering with ARCH (no UG ARCH class)
5136 6036	Intergovernmental Relations	Studies relations between federal and state governments and how various institutions have responded to crises or implemented their political agendas.	Capstone, POL majors only SSTD course
5161 6061	Power and Democracy	Studies the concept of power in political science and addresses questions about who rules, how rule is exercised and distributed, and what are its effects.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors Capstone allowed for SSTD
5164 6064	South Asia and the World	Studies how South Asia is ruled today by focusing on political violence, colonial legacy, nationalism, economic development and alignments.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors Capstone allowed for SSTD; AIST course
5165 6065	Women and Sustainable Development	Focuses on women, politics and policies in the developing countries and their participation in economic development and a sustainable environment.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors Capstone allowed for SSTD Cross-listed EVST 5165
5168 6068	Nation, Race, Identity	Focuses on theoretical and philosophical writings on nationalism, race, racism and ethnicity as the latter have been driving forces in the political world today.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD course
5176 6076	The New Europe	Surveys literature on themes and theories of recent developments in European politics.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors Capstone allowed for SSTD; joined with EUST 5001
5177 6077	Europe vs America: Challenges in TA Relations	Examines the changing political, economic, and cultural relations between Europe and the US; examines political systems; public policies and foreign policy positions.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors Capstone allowed for SSTD; joined with EUST 5001
5180 6080	International Cooperation	Examines key concepts, theories, variations and instances of international cooperation. May include a study abroad trip to Brussels and the Hague.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD certificate, Study abroad course
5181 6081	Inequalities & Resistances in the Global IPE	Examines the production of and resistances to global inequalities through critical, esp. feminist, perspectives on the global int'l political economy (IPE).	Capstone, POL&INTA majors, cross-listed with WGS 4181
5183 6083	China and America: Challenges and Opportunities	Examines U.S.-China relationship with emphasis on contemporary world affairs and foreign policies on a range of pressing issues.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors Capstone allowed for SSTD
5184 6084	International Crisis Decisionmaking	Examines competing models of decision-making and the particular dynamics of international crises. Involves research and a multi-week simulation.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD certificate
5185 6085	US Grand Strategy	Considers American grand strategy towards the great powers with an eye towards the implications of that experience for future politics in Asia and elsewhere.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD certificate
5186 6086	Asian Security	Examines security and conflict in Asia; focuses on human security, social and ethical aspects, economic and environmental challenges.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD certificate; AIST course
5189 6089	The Politics of Humanitarian Intervention	Examines the causes, character, and consequences of military intervention for humanitarian purposes. Discusses cases of Iraq, Kosovo, Bosnia, Libya, Syria.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD certificate
5190 6090	Feminist International Politics	Examines the development and impact of the field of feminist IR of the study of world politics. It focuses on readings dealing with feminist security studies and feminist international political economy.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD certificate
5193 6093	Nuclear Proliferation, Arms	Examines issues related to nuclear proliferation and arms control; focuses on nuclear policies, programs, international	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD certificate

	Control, and International Security	treaties, diplomacy and sanctions.
5197 6097	Global and Regional Governance	Examines the role and meaning of global and regional governance; the importance of international institutions and their impact in various areas of international cooperation.	Capstone, POL&INTA majors SSTD certificate

List of 7000-level courses approved for Dept High Honors Capstone for POL majors subject to instructor's approval):

- POL7010 Pro-seminar in American Political Institutions (4 credits)*
  - POL7011 Pro-seminar in American Political Behavior (4 credits)*
  - POL7012 Pro-seminar in Political Parties (4 credits)*
  - POL7015 Pro-Seminar in Public Opinion and Public Policy (4 credits)*
  - POL7019 Pro-seminar in American Executive Politics (4 credits)*
  - POL7020 Pro-seminar in Legislative Politics (4 credits)*
  - POL7026 Politics of Plan Implementation (4 credits)*
  - POL8010 Research Seminar in American Politics (4 credits)*
- Also any of the INTA Honor Honors Courses listed below are acceptable (4 credits)

List of 7000-level courses approved for Dept High Honors Capstone for INTA majors (subject to instructor's approval):

- POL7042 Cosmopolitanism (4 credits)*
- POL7060 Proseminar in Comparative Politics (4 credits)*
- POL7068 Identity Politics in Comparative Perspective (4 credits)*
- POL7069 Democracy and development (4 credits)*
- POL7080 Proseminar in International Relations Theory (4 credits)*
- POL7081 Field Seminar in Security Studies (4 credits)*
- POL7082 Proseminar in International Security (4 credits)*
- POL7083 Pro-Seminar in International Political Economy (4 credits)*
- POL7084 Contemporary International Law (4 credits)*
- POL7091 Critical Perspectives on War, Peace, and Security (4 credits)*
- POL8060 Research Seminar in Comparative Politics (4 credits)*
- POL8080 Research Seminar in International Relations (4 credits)*